HON. J. J. MATTJOY

President of the Negro Democratic Organization of this City also Probation Officer of Jackson County and one of the foremost orators of his race in Missouri.

MATTJOY SELECTED AS LEADER OF NEGRO DEMOCRACY.

Jno. L. F. Talton, Chairman.

At a meeting of Negro Democrats held at the home of Prof. John L. F. Talton, 1215 Vine St., September 10, 1919, Mr. J. J. Mattjoy was unanimously chosen the leader of Negro Democrats of Kansas City.

There were between fifty and sixty present and after adjournment, they left in a body and waited upon Judge Casimer J. Welch at his court room and express to him the unanimous election of Mr. J. J. Mattjoy as their leader.

Judge Welch heartily agreeing in their choice as a leader, stated that they had a perfect right to select Mr. Mattjoy as their leader and further expressed a great friendship for Mr. Mattjoy.

Mr. Mattjoy is a life long democrat. He has a wide acquaintance with democrats, both locally and nationally.

He comes highly recommended by Governor Gardner. He worked for the success of the democrat ticket in St. Louis, the governor's home, thus forming a close acquaintance and friendship of the Governor.

Mr. Mattjoy is a man of fine personal appearance, well educated, and speaks well and fluently three different languages, and often employed by the courts as an interpreter.

Mr. Mattjoy is a good mixer which is the chief characteristic of a good leader, and as a race man can not be excelled, being for his people, first, last and always. Mr. Mattjoy is strictly honest and straight forward in his dealings, he has a common touch and

Mrs. W. R. Roberts who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Josephine Jackson of 2111 Campbell Street, and other relatives left for her home in Portland, Ore., this week after a most delightful stay during which she was the recipient of many social attentions, auto rides, etc. She will stop in Denver en route home.

Mrs. Nellie E. Young left last week for Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, where she entered William Young in school. William is the son of Mr. Young. Before returning home Mrs. Young will spend a few days in Chicago. Mrs. Young was delighted with her visit at Tuskegee and describes it as being the most beautiful place she has ever visited.

Miss Susie E. Johnson left for Detroit, Mich., Thursday, September 17, and was married September 20, to Mr. Lemmon Vaden of that city. Before leaving she was entertained by Mrs. Carrie Barnett of 2017 Olive Street, with a delightful party. And on Wednesday evening by Mrs. Louise Dodson, 2402 Flora Avenue. The friends of Mrs. Vaden all wish her much success.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Nannie Walls Washington, who passed away one year ago September 28, 1918:

Rest in peace dear mother,
Forget you, we never will;
We always did truly love you
And always love you still.

We did all that was in our power
And yet in vain you were called away

No more with us to stay.
Rest in peace dear mother,
One we loved has passed away
You are gone but not forgotten
We think of you every day.
